              G                    Am                F                C
1 Lord, whose love through humble service bore the weight of human need
        G               Am             F               C
  Who upon the cross forsaken, offered mercy's perfect deed
           G                    Am             Em               F
  We, your servants, bring the worship not of voice alone, but heart
       Am              Dm             F               C
  Consecrating to your purpose every gift that you impart.

             G               Am                   F              C
2 Still Your children wander homeless; still the hungry cry for bread
           G                  Am                  F                  C
  Still the captives long for freedom; still in grief we mourn our dead
        G                  Am                   Em                 F
  As, O Lord, your deep compassion, healed the sick and freed the soul
         Am               Dm                 F                 C
  Use the love Your Spirit kindles, still to save and make us whole.

        G                  Am                F                C
3 As we worship, grant us vision, till Your love's revealing light
         G                    Am                F                  C
  In its height and depth and greatness, dawns upon our quickened sight
         G                    Am              Em               F
  Making known the needs and burdens Your compassion bids us bear
           Am             Dm               F               C
  Stirring us to tireless striving, your abundant life to share.

           G               Am                F                  C
4 Called by worship to Your service, forth in Your dear name we go
         G                      Am             F               C
  To the child, the youth, the aged, love in living deeds to show
           G                     Am                Em                F
  Hope and health, goodwill and comfort, counsel, aid, and peace we give
           Am                  Dm               F              C
  That Your servants, Lord, in freedom May Your mercy know and live.
