         Gm               *               *               C
  And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun
        F                  Dm              Am              Dm

  At Bethlehem I had my birth.

  F       Am          *              Dm
  Dance, then, wher-ever you may be

  I am the Lord of the dance, said he
             F         Bb         F              *

  And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

    F                 Dm                Am    Dm
2 I danced for the scribe and the Pharisee
             Gm          *                 *                  C

  I danced for the fishermen, for James and John
       Gm          C           Bb           F
  They came with me and the dance went on:

  F       Am          *              Dm
  Dance, then, wher-ever you may be

3 I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame
      Gm    *       *               C
  The holy people said it was a shame
       F                   Dm                   Am           Dm
  They whipped and they stripped and they hung me on high
             Gm       C           Bb         F

  Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
