        Dm             *             *              G
    And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun
        C              Am             Em             Am
    And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth

    At Bethlehem I had my birth.

    C      Em          *            Am
    Dance, then, wher-ever you may be

    I am the Lord of the dance, said he

    And I'll lead you all, wher-ever you may be

    And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

      C               Am              Em   Am
2   I danced for the scribe and the Pharisee
           Dm        *               *                G
    But they would not dance and they wouldn't follow me

    I danced for the fishermen, for James and John
         Dm        G          F          C
    They came with me and the dance went on:

    C      Em          *            Am
    Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
    C        *           Dm          G

3   I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame
       Dm   *      *              G
    The holy people said it was a shame
         C                 Am                  Em          Am
    They whipped and they stripped and they hung me on high
           Dm      G          F         C
    And they left me there on a cross to die:

    C      Em          *            Am
    Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
    C        *           Dm          G
    I am the Lord of the dance, said he

It's hard to dance with the devil on your back

They buried my body and they thought I'd gone
    Dm        G             F         C
But I am the dance, and I still go on:
