          F                 Dm              Am              Dm
      And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth

      Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
      F         *             Gm           C
      I am the Lord of the dance, said he
                F         Bb         F              *

2     I danced for the scribe and the Pharisee
               Gm         *                *                C

               Gm       C           Bb        F
      And they left me there on a cross to die:

      Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
