```
      G                Em                    Bm              Em
1     I danced in the morning when the world was be-gun
           Am               *               *                D
      And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun
           G                  Em              Bm               Em
      And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth
        Am     D      C       G
      At Bethlehem I had my birth.

      G       Bm          *              Em
      Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
      G         *             Am           D
      I am the Lord of the dance, said he
                G         C          G              *
      And I'll lead you all, wher-ever you may be
                C         D           G             *
      And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

      G                 Em                Bm    Em
2     I danced for the scribe and the Pharisee
                Am         *                 *                  D
      But they would not dance and they wouldn't follow me
      G                 Em                Bm         Em
      I danced for the fishermen, for James and John
           Am         D           C           G
      They came with me and the dance went on:

      G       Bm          *              Em
      Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
      G         *             Am           D
      I am the Lord of the dance, said he
                G         C          G              *
      And I'll lead you all, wher-ever you may be
                C         D           G             *
      And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

      G               Em              Bm          Em
3     I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame
         Am    *       *               D
      The holy people said it was a shame
           G                  Em                    Bm           Em
      They whipped and they stripped and they hung me on high
                Am       D           C         G
      And they left me there on a cross to die:

      G       Bm          *              Em
      Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
      G         *             Am           D
      I am the Lord of the dance, said he
```

```
          G         C          G              *
And I'll lead you all, wher-ever you may be
          C         D          G              *
And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.
```

```
  G            Em                Bm          Em
4 I danced on a Friday when the sky turned black
     Am       *               *               D
  It's hard to dance with the devil on your back
     G          Em             Bm           Em
  They buried my body and they thought I'd gone
    Am        D             C         G
  But I am the dance, and I still go on:
```

```
G       Bm          *             Em
Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
G         *            Am           D
I am the Lord of the dance, said he
          G         C          G              *
And I'll lead you all, wher-ever you may be
          C         D          G              *
And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.
```

     G       Em          Bm        Em
5 They cut me down and I leapt up high
  Am      *             *             D
  I am the life that'll never, never die
     G        Em             Bm       Em
  I'll live in you if you'll live in me
  Am      D            C            G
  I am the Lord of the dance, said he.
```

```
G       Bm          *             Em
Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
G         *            Am           D
I am the Lord of the dance, said he
          G         C          G              *
And I'll lead you all, wher-ever you may be
          C         D          G              *
And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.
