     F       *          Bb      C                    F      *      C        F
1    Take my life, and let it be                     Ever, only, all for thee.
     F      Dm      F         C
     Consecrated, Lord, to thee
     F       *        Bb      C
     Take my moments and my days
     F        *       C          F
     Let them flow in ceaseless praise
     C       Gm          Am        F
     Take my hands, and let them move
     C      Gm       C       F
     At the impulse of thy love
     F       *          Bb        C
     Take my feet, and let them be
     F          *     C        F
     Swift and beautiful for thee.

     F       *          Bb      C
2    Take my voice, and let me sing
     F       Dm     F       C
     Always, only, for my King
     F       *          Bb        C
     Take my lips, and let them be
     F            *    C         F
     Filled with messages from thee
     C       Gm      Am      F
     Take my silver and my gold
     C      Gm          C      F
     Not a mite would I withhold
     F       *     Bb         C
     Take my intellect, and use
     F      *         C           F
     Every power as thou shalt choose.

     F       *          Bb      C
3    Take my will, and make it thine
     F         Dm     F       C
     It shall be no longer mine
     F       *          Bb        C
     Take my heart, it is thine own
     F        *       C      F
     It shall be thy royal throne
     C       Gm        Am       F
     Take my love, my Lord, I pour
     C      Gm       C         F
     At thy feet its treasure-store
     F      *          Bb      C
     Take myself, and I will be
