```
    G                Em                    Bm              Em
1 I danced in the morning when the world was be-gun
        Am              *              *               D
  And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun
       G                Em             Bm              Em
  And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth
    Am     D      C       G
  At Bethlehem I had my birth.

| G       Bm          *             Em
| Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
| G         *            Am           D
| I am the Lord of the dance, said he
|          G         C          G             *
| And I'll lead you all, wher-ever you may be
|          C         D           G             *
| And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

    G                Em                Bm    Em
2 I danced for the scribe and the Pharisee
           Am         *                *                  D
  But they would not dance and they wouldn't follow me
    G                Em                Bm         Em
  I danced for the fishermen, for James and John
       Am         D           C           G
  They came with me and the dance went on:

| G       Bm          *             Em
| Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
| G         *            Am           D
| I am the Lord of the dance, said he
|          G         C          G             *
| And I'll lead you all, wher-ever you may be
|          C         D           G             *
| And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

    G               Em              Bm         Em
3 I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame
      Am    *       *               D
  The holy people said it was a shame
       G                  Em                   Bm           Em
  They whipped and they stripped and they hung me on high
           Am       D           C         G
  And they left me there on a cross to die:

| G       Bm          *             Em
| Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
| G         *            Am           D
| I am the Lord of the dance, said he
```

```
          G         C          G             *
And I'll lead you all, wher-ever you may be
          C         D          G             *
And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

   G            Em                Bm          Em
4 I danced on a Friday when the sky turned black
       Am       *                 *             D
  It's hard to dance with the devil on your back
       G          Em              Bm          Em
  They buried my body and they thought I'd gone
      Am        D             C         G
  But I am the dance, and I still go on:
```

```
G       Bm          *             Em
Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
G         *           Am           D
I am the Lord of the dance, said he
          G         C          G             *
And I'll lead you all, wher-ever you may be
          C         D          G             *
And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.
```

       G       Em          Bm        Em
5 They cut me down and I leapt up high
    Am      *             *            D
  I am the life that'll never, never die
       G        Em             Bm       Em
  I'll live in you if you'll live in me
    Am      D            C           G
  I am the Lord of the dance, said he.
```

```
G       Bm          *             Em
Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
G         *           Am           D
I am the Lord of the dance, said he
          G         C          G             *
And I'll lead you all, wher-ever you may be
          C         D          G             *
And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.
