          G       G7              C      *                G     Em               A  D
1 I cannot tell why he, whom angels worship; Should set his love upon the sons of men
            G         G7                C       *              G          *
  Or why, as Shepherd, he should seek the wanderers; To bring them back, they know not how or
   *   B7
   when
            Em         C              G   B7                 Em     C            D   *
  But this I know, that he was born of Mary; When Bethl'em's manger was his only home
             G        C            G       Em          G                D                G   *
  And that he lived at Nazareth and laboured; And so the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is come.

          G       G7          C       *             G        Em                    A   D
2 I cannot tell how silently he suffered; As with his peace he graced this place of tears
            G      G7                C     *              G       *                *    B7
  Or how his heart upon the cross was broken; The crown of pain to three and thirty years
            Em       C               G      B7              Em      C                 D   *
  But this I know, he heals the brokenhearted; And stays our sin and calms our lurking fear
               G      C              G    Em              G                D               G
  And lifts the burden from the heavy laden; For still the Saviour, Saviour of the world is here

          G       G7              C      *             G         Em          A   D
3 I cannot tell how he will win the nations; How he will claim his earthly heritage
          G      G7            C      *             G        *             *   B7
  How satisfy the needs and aspirations; Of east and west, of sinner and of sage
            Em        C                  G  B7               Em       C              D   *
  But this I know, all flesh shall see his glory; And he shall reap the harvest he has sown
               G       C                 G    Em                G                D
  And some glad day his sun will shine in splendour; When he the Saviour, Saviour of the world,
      G    *
   is known.

          G       G7                  C      *             G       Em             A      D
4 I cannot tell how all the lands shall worship; When at his bidding every storm is stilled
            G       G7            C     *            G          *               *    B7
  Or who can say how great the jubilation; When every heart with love and joy is filled
            Em        C                      G  B7               Em     C            D   *
  But this I know, the skies will thrill with rapture; And myriad myriad human voices sing
              G          C                    G Em                 G                D
  And earth to heav'n, and heav'n to earth, will answer; 'At last the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is King!'
            G    *
