  Am       D            Am *    D         F       Am    *
1 Now the green blade ri-seth from the buried grain
  Am          D  Am    *     D    F         Am  *
  Wheat that in dark earth many days has lain
  Am    *       E7  *       Am        *         E7  *
  Love lives again, that with the dead has been
  Am       D      Am    *    D           F          Am    *
  Love is come again like wheat that springeth green.

  Am      D           Am    *    D          F        Am    *
2 In the grave they laid him, Love whom men had slain
  Am        D    Am *   D         F      Am  *
  Thinking that ne-ver he would wake again
  Am    *       E7    *     Am          *         E7  *
  Laid in the earth like grain that sleeps unseen
  Am       D      Am    *    D           F          Am    *
  Love is come again like wheat that springeth green.

  Am        D       Am *     D         F      Am    *
3 Forth he came at Ea-ster, like the risen grain
  Am       D   Am     *    D       F          Am  *
  He that for three days in the grave had lain
  Am     *        E7  *   Am     *       E7  *
  Quick from the dead my risen Lord is seen
  Am       D      Am    *    D           F          Am    *
  Love is come again like wheat that springeth green.

  Am        D           Am *    D          F      Am  *
4 When our hearts are wintry, grieving, or in pain
  Am         D   Am    *  D        F      Am  *
  Thy touch can call us back to life again
  Am      *       E7    *     Am        *          E7  *
  Fields of our hearts that dead and bare have been
  Am       D      Am    *    D           F          Am    *
  Love is come again like wheat that springeth green.
