I Cannot Tell

Key: C Time: 4/4 Tune: LONDONDERRY AIR

          C       C7             F      *               C     Am              D  G
1 I cannot tell why he, whom angels worship; Should set his love upon the sons of men
            C        C7               F       *
  Or why, as Shepherd, he should seek the wanderers
              C         G              C   E7
  To bring them back, they know not how or when
            Am        F             C   E7               Am     F            G   *
  But this I know, that he was born of Mary; When Bethl'em's manger was his only home
             C       F           C      Am
  And that he lived at Nazareth and laboured
            C               G               C   *
  And so the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is come.

          C       C7          F       *            C       Am                   D   G
2 I cannot tell how silently he suffered; As with his peace he graced this place of tears
            C      C7               F     *             C       G               C    E7
  Or how his heart upon the cross was broken; The crown of pain to three and thirty years
            Am       F              C      E7             Am      F                 G   *
  But this I know, he heals the brokenhearted; And stays our sin and calms our lurking fear
              C      F             C    Am
  And lifts the burden from the heavy laden
              C               G              C   *
  For still the Saviour, Saviour of the world is here.

          C       C7              F      *            C         Am          D   G
3 I cannot tell how he will win the nations; How he will claim his earthly heritage
          C      C7            F      *             C        G             C   E7
  How satisfy the needs and aspirations; Of east and west, of sinner and of sage
            Am       F                   C    E7             Am       F              G   *
  But this I know, all flesh shall see his glory; And he shall reap the harvest he has sown
              C       F                 C        Am
  And some glad day his sun will shine in splendour
             C               G               C    *
  When he the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is known.

          C       C7                  F      *             C       Am              D      G
4 I cannot tell how all the lands shall worship; When at his bidding every storm is stilled
            C       C7            F     *            C          G               C    E7
  Or who can say how great the jubilation; When every heart with love and joy is filled
            Am       F                     C      E7           Am     F            G   *
  But this I know, the skies will thrill with rapture; And myriad myriad human voices sing
              C          F                    C     Am
  And earth to heav'n, and heav'n to earth, will answer
              C               G               C    *
  'At last the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is King!'
