          F     Bb        F          C              F
1 Rock of Ages, cleft for me, let me hide myself in Thee
          C             F              C                  F
  Let the water and the blood, from Thy wounded side which flowed
        F       Bb     F               *         C       F
  Be of sin the double cure; save from wrath and make me pure.

          F      Bb    F             C                F
2 Not the labors of my hands, can fulfill Thy law's demands
           C              F             C             F
  Could my zeal no respite know, could my tears forever flow
          F         Bb   F               *         C     F
  All for sin could not atone; Thou must save, and Thou alone.

          F     Bb     F             C              F
3 Nothing in my hand I bring, simply to the cross I cling
         C               F               C               F
  Naked, come to Thee for dress; helpless, look to Thee for grace
          F      Bb       F             *       C    F
  Foul, I to the fountain fly; wash me, savior, or I die.

          F         Bb       F                C                   F
4 While I draw this fleeting breath, when mine eyes shall close in death
         C               F              C               F
  When I soar to worlds unknown, see Thee on Thy judgment throne
          F     Bb        F          *      C       F
  Rock of Ages, cleft for me, let me hide myself in Thee.
