```
  G    *    *   *   Am D     G    *
1 When I survey the wondrous cross
  G  *         C      *  G  *  D   *
  On which the Prince of Glory died
  G  *       *    * Am    D   G   *
  My richest gain I count but loss
  G   *       D     Em Am  D  G    *
  And pour contempt on all my pride.

  G  *       *     *    Am D      G    *
2 Forbid it, Lord, that I  should boast
  G    *      C     *  G       *  D  *
  Save in the death of Christ, my God
  G   *        *      *    Am    D  G   *
  All the vain things that charm me most
  G *    D    Em   Am D   G    *
  I sacrifice them to his blood.

  G    *        *     *   Am     D   G   *
3 See, from his head, his hands, his feet
  G  *       C    *    G  *    D   *
  Sorrow and love flow mingled down
  G   *         *    *   Am D   G   *
  Did e'er such love and sorrow meet
  G  *         D    Em Am   D G    *
  Or thorns compose so rich a crown.

  G    *         *     *  Am D    G   *
4 Were the whole realm of na-ture mine
  G    *       C *      G   *   D    *
  That were an offering far too small
  G    *   * *     Am D G   *
  Love so amazing, so divine
  G *        D     Em Am    D  G  *
  Demands my soul, my life, my all.
