    F      *         G   C         Am         E7             Am
1 O sacred Head, now wounded with grief and shame weighed down
      F       *     G   C         Am            E7    Am
  Now scornfully surrounded with thorns, Thine only crown
      G         F        C *          F     *        Am
  How pale thou art with anguish with sore abuse and scorn
      G         C      D  G           F        G         C
  How does that visage languish which once was bright as morn.

       F        *          G  C            Am      E7       Am
2 What Thou, my Lord, hast suffered, t'was all for sinners' gain
       F        *        G   C        Am        E7     Am
  Mine, mine was the transgression but Thine the deadly pain
      G      F        C *          F   *         Am
  Lo, here I fall, my Saviour 'tis I deserve Thy place
       G     C        D G         F       G      C
  Look on me with Thy favour vouchsafe to me Thy grace.

       F        *       G  C      Am          E7      Am
3 What language shall I borrow to thank thee, dearest Friend
      F         *     G  C        Am   E7      Am
  For this, thy dying sorrow, thy pity without end?
      G       F       C *       F        *        Am
  Oh, make me thine forever and should I fainting be
        G      C      D G      F       G       C
  Lord, let me never, never outlive my love to thee.

     F         *    G C        Am        E7       Am
4 Be near when I am dying, oh, show your cross to me
      F      *       G  C          Am        E7     Am
  And for my rescue, flying, come, Lord, and set me free!
        G         F       C  *         F     *         Am
  These eyes, new faith receiving from Jesus shall not move
      G       C      D  G          F       G           C
  For one who dies believing, dies safely, through thy love.
