    C      *         D   G         Em         B7             Em
1 O sacred Head, now wounded with grief and shame weighed down
      C       *     D   G         Em            B7    Em
  Now scornfully surrounded with thorns, Thine only crown
      D         C        G *          C     *        Em
  How pale thou art with anguish with sore abuse and scorn
      D         G      A  D           C        D         G
  How does that visage languish which once was bright as morn.

      C        *          D  G            Em      B7       Em
2 What Thou, my Lord, hast suffered, t'was all for sinners' gain
       C        *        D   G        Em        B7     Em
  Mine, mine was the transgression but Thine the deadly pain
      D      C        G *          C   *         Em
  Lo, here I fall, my Saviour 'tis I deserve Thy place
      D     G        A D         C       D      G
  Look on me with Thy favour vouchsafe to me Thy grace.

      C        *       D  G      Em          B7      Em
3 What language shall I borrow to thank thee, dearest Friend
      C         *     D  G        Em   B7      Em
  For this, thy dying sorrow, thy pity without end?
      D       C       G *       C        *        Em
  Oh, make me thine forever and should I fainting be
       D      G      A D      C       D       G
  Lord, let me never, never outlive my love to thee.

    C         *    D G        Em        B7       Em
4 Be near when I am dying, oh, show your cross to me
      C      *       D  G          Em        B7     Em
  And for my rescue, flying, come, Lord, and set me free!
       D         C       G  *         C     *         Em
  These eyes, new faith receiving from Jesus shall not move
      D       G      A  D          C       D           G
  For one who dies believing, dies safely, through thy love.
