              D                    Em                C                G
1 Lord, whose love through humble service bore the weight of human need
        D               Em             C               G
  Who upon the cross forsaken, offered mercy's perfect deed
          D                    Em             Bm               C
  We, your servants, bring the worship not of voice alone, but heart
      Em              Am            C               G
  Consecrating to your purpose every gift that you impart.

            D               Em                   C              G
2 Still Your children wander homeless; still the hungry cry for bread
           D                   Em                 C                   G
  Still the captives long for freedom; still in grief we mourn our dead
        D                  Em                   Bm                  C
  As, O Lord, your deep compassion, healed the sick and freed the soul
         Em                Am                 C                 G
  Use the love Your Spirit kindles, still to save and make us whole.

        D                  Em                C                G
3 As we worship, grant us vision, till Your love's revealing light
         D                    Em                C                  G
  In its height and depth and greatness, dawns upon our quickened sight
         D                    Em              Bm              C
  Making known the needs and burdens Your compassion bids us bear
          Em              Am              C               G
  Stirring us to tireless striving, your abundant life to share.

           D               Em                C                  G
4 Called by worship to Your service, forth in Your dear name we go
         D                      Em            C               G
  To the child, the youth, the aged, love in living deeds to show
          D                     Em                Bm                C
  Hope and health, goodwill and comfort, counsel, aid, and peace we give
           Em                  Am               C              G
  That Your servants, Lord, in freedom May Your mercy know and live.
