  F           C                   Dm               Bb              F
1 Lord, whose love through humble service bore the weight of human need
        C               Dm             Bb              F
  Who upon the cross forsaken, offered mercy's perfect deed
           C                   Dm             Am               Bb
  We, your servants, bring the worship not of voice alone, but heart
       Dm              Gm            Bb              F
  Consecrating to your purpose every gift that you impart.

  F          C               Dm                  Bb             F
2 Still Your children wander homeless; still the hungry cry for bread
            C                 Dm                Bb                 F
  Still the captives long for freedom; still in grief we mourn our dead
        C                  Dm                  Am                 Bb
  As, O Lord, your deep compassion, healed the sick and freed the soul
          Dm               Gm                Bb               F
  Use the love Your Spirit kindles, still to save and make us whole.

  F     C                 Dm                Bb               F
3 As we worship, grant us vision, till Your love's revealing light
         C                    Dm                Bb                F
  In its height and depth and greatness, dawns upon our quickened sight
         C                   Dm              Am              Bb
  Making known the needs and burdens Your compassion bids us bear
           Dm             Gm              Bb              F
  Stirring us to tireless striving, your abundant life to share.

  F         C               Dm                Bb                F
4 Called by worship to Your service, forth in Your dear name we go
         C                     Dm           Bb              F
  To the child, the youth, the aged, love in living deeds to show
           C                    Dm                Am                Bb
  Hope and health, goodwill and comfort, counsel, aid, and peace we give
            Dm                 Gm               Bb             F
  That Your servants, Lord, in freedom May Your mercy know and live.
