Alas! and Did My Savior Bleed

Key: C Time: 4/4 Tune: HUDSON

   C       *     *     *          F      *         G  *
1 Alas! and did my Savior bleed, and did my Sovereign die?
       C    *        G     *       F       *       C *
  Would he devote that sacred head for sinners such as I-?

|      C            *             G            *            F            *            C  *
| At the cross, at the cross, where I first saw the light and the burden of my heart rolled away
|      F        *        C         *          Dm       G            C  *
| It was there by faith I received my sight, and now I am happy all the day.

    C     *          *     *       F        *       G   *
2 Was it for crimes that I have done, he groaned upon the tree?
  C     *     G       *          F      *      C   *
  Amazing pity! Grace unknown! And love beyond degree!

|      C            *             G            *            F            *            C  *
| At the cross, at the cross, where I first saw the light and the burden of my heart rolled away
|      F        *        C         *          Dm       G            C  *
| It was there by faith I received my sight, and now I am happy all the day.

     C        *     *       *        F        *       G *
3 Well might the sun in darkness hide, and shut its glories in
     C       *      G      *       F       *          C  *
  When God, the mighty maker, died for his own creature’s sin.

|      C            *             G            *            F            *            C  *
| At the cross, at the cross, where I first saw the light and the burden of my heart rolled away
|      F        *        C         *          Dm       G            C  *
| It was there by faith I received my sight, and now I am happy all the day.

     C       *       *       *          F        *       G    *
4 Thus might I hide my blushing face while his dear cross appears
    C       *       G       *        F         *       C    *
  Dissolve my heart in thankfulness, and melt mine eyes to tears.

|      C            *             G            *            F            *            C  *
| At the cross, at the cross, where I first saw the light and the burden of my heart rolled away
|      F        *        C         *          Dm       G            C  *
| It was there by faith I received my sight, and now I am happy all the day.

    C       *        *       *       F       *      G  *
5 But drops of tears can ne’er repay the debt of love I owe
       C       *      G     *         F       *     C *
  Here, Lord, I give myself away; ’tis all that I can do.

|      C            *             G            *            F            *            C  *
| At the cross, at the cross, where I first saw the light and the burden of my heart rolled away
|      F        *        C         *          Dm       G            C  *
| It was there by faith I received my sight, and now I am happy all the day.
