     F               *     Bb     *      F      Bb       C     *
1    Crown Him with many crowns, the Lamb upon His throne
          F        Dm        G       C      *     *      G        C  *
     Hark how the heav'nly anthem drowns all music but its own
      F         *          Bb   *    G        *         C    *
     Awake, my soul, and sing of Him who died for thee
         F         Bb      C          F             Bb    C     F   *
     And hail Him as thy matchless King through all eternity

     F              *        Bb   *      F          Bb        C     *
2    Crown Him the Lord of life, who triumphed o'er the grave
         F        Dm       G       C           *         G        C    *
     And rose victorious in the strife for those He came to save
         F        *       Bb   *      G         *        C
     His glories now we sing, who died and rose on high
         F      Bb      C        F          Bb          C          F   *
     Who died eternal life to bring and lives that death may die

     F              *        Bb    *       F        Bb       C     *
3    Crown Him the Lord of peace whose power a scepter sways
          F        Dm          G         C          *       G           C     *
     From pole to pole, that wars may cease and all be prayer and praise
         F            *        Bb  *     G          *        C    *
     His reign shall know no end and round His pierced feet
          F           Bb   C       F           Bb         C     F     *
     Fair flowers of paradise extend their fragrance ever sweet.

     F              *        Bb   *    F         Bb         C    *
4    Crown Him the Lord of love, behold His hands and side
           F           Dm   G    C         *       G     C    *
     Those wounds yet visible above in beauty glorified
         F       *        Bb   *      G          *         C  *
     All hail Redeemer, hail, for Thou hast died for me
         F           Bb     C          F            Bb    C     F  *
     Thy praise and glory shall not fail throughout eternity
