1   I danced in the morning when the world was begun
           Gm           *            *            C
    And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun
           F                Dm          Am            Dm
    And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth

    At Bethlehem I had my birth.

    And I'll lead you all, wherever you may be
             Bb      C       F           *
    And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

      F              Dm          Am   Dm
2   I danced for the scribe and the Pharisee
              Gm       *             *               C
    But they would not dance and they wouldn't follow me
      F              Dm          Am       Dm
    I danced for the fishermen, for James and John
           Gm      C           Bb        F
    They came with me and the dance went on:

    F        Am      *              Dm
    Dance, then, wherever you may be
    F        *           Gm        C
    I am the Lord of the dance, said he
            F        Bb      F              *
    And I'll lead you all, wherever you may be
             Bb      C       F           *
    And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

      F              Dm          Am       Dm
3   I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame
          Gm *          *       C
    The holy people said it was a shame
          F                 Dm               Am         Dm
    They whipped and they stripped and they hung me on high
               Gm    C          Bb     F
    And they left me there on a cross to die:
