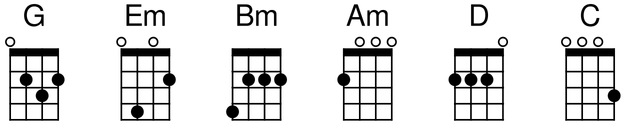
Key: G   Time: 4/4



```
     G              Em               Bm          Em
1   I danced in the morning when the world was begun
          Am            *            *             D
    And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun
          G              Em           Bm            Em
    And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth
       Am    D     C      G
    At Bethlehem I had my birth.

    G      Bm        *            Em
    Dance, then, wherever you may be
    G        *           Am       D
    I am the Lord of the dance, said he
             G        C    G                *
    And I'll lead you all, wherever you may be
             C        D          G      *
    And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

      G              Em             Bm  Em
2   I danced for the scribe and the Pharisee
             Am        *              *               D
    But they would not dance and they wouldn't follow me
      G              Em             Bm        Em
    I danced for the fishermen, for James and John
         Am        D          C          G
    They came with me and the dance went on:

    G      Bm        *            Em
    Dance, then, wherever you may be
    G        *           Am       D
    I am the Lord of the dance, said he
             G        C    G                *
    And I'll lead you all, wherever you may be
             C        D          G      *
    And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

      G             Em          Bm          Em
3   I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame
        Am   *           *      D
    The holy people said it was a shame
         G                Em                Bm         Em
    They whipped and they stripped and they hung me on high
             Am   D             C     G
    And they left me there on a cross to die:
```
