```
      G              Em                  Bm            Em
1  I danced in the morning when the world was be-gun
         Am            *              *             D
   And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun
         G                   Em            Bm             Em
   And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth
     Am   D      C       G
   At Bethlehem I had my birth.

   G       Bm          *              Em
   Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
   G        *            Am          D
   I am the Lord of the dance, said he
         G        C         G              *
   And I'll lead you all, wher-ever you may be
         C        D         G           *
   And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

      G              Em             Bm   Em
2  I danced for the scribe and the Pharisee
          Am         *                *                  D
   But they would not dance and they wouldn't follow me
      G              Em             Bm          Em
   I danced for the fishermen, for James and John
        Am          D            C            G
   They came with me and the dance went on:

   G       Bm          *              Em
   Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
   G        *            Am          D
   I am the Lord of the dance, said he
         G        C         G              *
   And I'll lead you all, wher-ever you may be
         C        D         G           *
   And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

      G              Em             Bm         Em
3  I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame
       Am  *        *              D
   The holy people said it was a shame
        G                   Em                 Bm           Em
   They whipped and they stripped and they hung me on high
            Am      D          C         G
   And they left me there on a cross to die:
