1 Come down, O Love divine, seek thou this soul of mine
  G   F     *       Dm        *     G  C   *
  And visit it with thine own ardor glowing
  Am *     C    D    G   * Bb F       Dm    C G
  O  Comforter, draw near, wi-thin my heart appear
  G   C      G       C    Dm      G  C   *
  And kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing.

  C *      G   F  C   * *    *       Am D     G
2 O let it freely burn, till earthly passions turn
  G  F        *     Dm     *       G C   *
  To dust and ashes in its heat consuming
  Am  *       C  D     G    *  Bb    F    Dm C  G
  And let thy glorious light   shine ever on my sight
  G   C         G          C        Dm     G C   *
  And clothe me round, the while my path illuming.

  C   *      G   F    C     * *    *         Am   D    G
3 And so the yearning strong, with which the soul will long
  G     F      *        Dm       *     G  C   *
  Shall far outpass the power of human telling
  Am  *        C     D   G    * Bb   F    Dm   C   G
  For none can guess its grace, till we become the place
  G    C      G    C      Dm      G  C    *
  Wherein the Holy Spirit makes a dwelling.
