Alas! and Did My Savior Bleed

Key: G Time: 4/4 Tune: HUDSON

```
   G        *      *      *          C      *         D  *
1 Alas! and did my Savior bleed, and did my Sovereign die?
       G    *         D      *        C       *       G *
  Would he devote that sacred head for sinners such as I-?

       G             *              D             *
At the cross, at the cross, where I first saw the light
        C            *             G  *
And the burden of my heart rolled away
       C        *         G         *
It was there by faith I received my sight
    Am       D             G  *
And now I am happy all the day.

     G      *           *      *        C        *       D   *
2 Was it for crimes that I have done, he groaned upon the tree?
   G      *     D       *          C      *      G   *
  Amazing pity! Grace unknown! And love beyond degree!

       G             *              D             *
At the cross, at the cross, where I first saw the light
        C            *             G  *
And the burden of my heart rolled away
       C        *         G         *
It was there by faith I received my sight
    Am       D             G  *
And now I am happy all the day.

      G         *      *        *         C        *       D *
3 Well might the sun in darkness hide, and shut its glories in
      G        *      D      *        C       *          G  *
  When God, the mighty maker, died for his own creature's sin.

       G             *              D             *
At the cross, at the cross, where I first saw the light
        C            *             G  *
And the burden of my heart rolled away
       C        *         G         *
It was there by faith I received my sight
    Am       D             G  *
And now I am happy all the day.

```
      G       *       *        *          C        *       D    *
4 Thus might I hide my blushing face while his dear cross appears
    G        *        D       *         C         *       G    *
  Dissolve my heart in thankfulness, and melt mine eyes to tears.

       G             *              D             *
  At the cross, at the cross, where I first saw the light
        C            *             G  *
  And the burden of my heart rolled away
       C        *         G         *
  It was there by faith I received my sight
    Am       D             G  *
  And now I am happy all the day.

    G        *         *       *       C       *      D  *
5 But drops of tears can ne’er repay the debt of love I owe
      G       *      D     *         C        *     G *
  Here, Lord, I give myself away; ’tis all that I can do.

       G             *              D             *
  At the cross, at the cross, where I first saw the light
        C            *             G  *
  And the burden of my heart rolled away
       C        *         G         *
  It was there by faith I received my sight
    Am       D             G  *
  And now I am happy all the day.
