```
    C              Am                Em            Am
1 I danced in the morning when the world was be-gun
       Dm             *             *              G
  And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun
       C              Am           Em             Am
  And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth
     Dm    G     F      C
  At Bethlehem I had my birth.

  C      Em         *            Am
  Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
  C        *           Dm          G
  I am the Lord of the dance, said he
           C        F         C    (F)     *
  And I'll lead you all, wher-ever you may be
           F        G          C      (F)  *
  And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

    C              Am              Em   Am
2 I danced for the scribe and the Pharisee
           Dm        *              *               G
  But they would not dance and they wouldn't follow me
    C              Am              Em        Am
  I danced for the fishermen, for James and John
       Dm        G          F          C
  They came with me and the dance went on:

  C      Em         *            Am
  Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
  C        *           Dm          G
  I am the Lord of the dance, said he
           C        F         C    (F)     *
  And I'll lead you all, wher-ever you may be
           F        G          C      (F)  *
  And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

    C              Am             Em        Am
3 I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame
      Dm   *      *              G
  The holy people said it was a shame
```

```
      C                 Am                 Em          Am
They whipped and they stripped and they hung me on high
          Dm      G          F        C
And they left me there on a cross to die:

C      Em         *            Am
Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
C        *           Dm          G
I am the Lord of the dance, said he
          C        F         C    (F)     *
And I'll lead you all, wher-ever you may be
          F        G          C      (F)  *
And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

  C           Am               Em          Am
4 I danced on a Friday when the sky turned black
      Dm      *              *             G
It's hard to dance with the devil on your back
      C         Am            Em          Am
They buried my body and they thought I'd gone
    Dm       G            F        C
But I am the dance, and I still go on:

C      Em         *            Am
Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
C        *           Dm          G
I am the Lord of the dance, said he
          C        F         C    (F)     *
And I'll lead you all, wher-ever you may be
          F        G          C      (F)  *
And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

      C      Am          Em       Am
5 They cut me down and I leapt up high
    Dm     *            *            G
I am the life that'll never, never die
      C       Am            Em      Am
I'll live in you if you'll live in me
    Dm     G           F           C
I am the Lord of the dance, said he.

Dance, then, wher-ever you may be
C        *           Dm          G
I am the Lord of the dance, said he
