```
  F       *       *        *      Bb        F           C       F
1 Angels, from the realms of glory, wing your flight o’er all the earth
  F       *       Dm      A7     Dm     Bb       G      C
  Ye, who sang creation’s story; now proclaim Messiah’s birth:

| C       *       F       Bb
| Come and worship, come and worship
| Gm      C         Bb      F
| Worship Christ, the newborn King!

  F          *      *       *       Bb       F          C         F
2 Shepherds, in the fields abiding, watching o’er your flocks by night
  F        *      Dm    A7      Dm     Bb         G      C
  God with man is now residing, yonder shines the infant light:

| C       *       F       Bb
| Come and worship, come and worship
| Gm      C         Bb      F
| Worship Christ, the newborn King!

  F      *          *     *         Bb       F       C     F
3 Sages, leave your contemplations, brighter visions beam afar
  F        *       Dm      A7       Dm      Bb       G        C
  Seek the great Desire of nations, ye have seen the Infant’s star:

| C       *       F       Bb
| Come and worship, come and worship
| Gm      C         Bb      F
| Worship Christ, the newborn King!

  F        *       *     *        Bb       F       C        F
4 Saints before the altar bending, watching long in hope and fear
  F     *      Dm     A7        Dm     Bb     G       C
  Suddenly the Lord descending, in His temple shall appear:

| C       *       F       Bb
| Come and worship, come and worship
| Gm      C         Bb      F
| Worship Christ, the newborn King!
