```
       C       G    F C          *         Am   D  G
1 Come down, O Love divine, seek thou this soul of mine
      F             Dm              G  C
  And visit it with thine own ardor glowing
    Am    C         G     Bb  F     Dm    C G
  O Comforter, draw near, within my heart appear
      C      G       C    Dm      G   C
  And kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing.

    C      G   F  C          *       Am D     G
2 O let it freely burn, till earthly passions turn
     F              Dm             G C
  To dust and ashes in its heat consuming
      Am      C  D     G     Bb    F    Dm C  G
  And let thy glorious light shine ever on my sight
      C         G          C        Dm     G C
  And clothe me round, the while my path illuming.

      C      G   F    C            *         Am   D    G
3 And so the yearning strong, with which the soul will long
        F               Dm             G   C
  Shall far outpass the power of human telling
      Am       C     D   G           F    Dm   C   G
  For none can guess its grace, till we become the place
  G    C      G    C      Dm      G    C
  Wherein the Holy Spirit makes a dwelling.
