```
       G       D    C G          *         Em   A  D
1 Come down, O Love divine, seek thou this soul of mine
      C             Am              D  G
  And visit it with thine own ardor glowing
    Em    G         D     F   C     Am    G D
  O Comforter, draw near, within my heart appear
      G      D       G    Am      D   G
  And kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing.

    G      D   C  G          *       Em A     D
2 O let it freely burn, till earthly passions turn
     C              Am             D G
  To dust and ashes in its heat consuming
      Em      G  A     D     F     C    Am G  D
  And let thy glorious light shine ever on my sight
      G         D          G        Am     D G
  And clothe me round, the while my path illuming.

      G      D   C    G            *         Em   A    D
3 And so the yearning strong, with which the soul will long
       C               Am             D   G
  Shall far outpass the power of human telling
      Em       G     A   D           C    Am   G   D
  For none can guess its grace, till we become the place
  D    G      D    G      Am      D    G
  Wherein the Holy Spirit makes a dwelling.
