           F        F7               Bb     *
1 I cannot tell why he, whom angels worship
                F     Dm              G  C
  Should set his love upon the sons of men
           F         F7                  Bb       *
  Or why, as Shepherd, he should seek the wanderers
               F          *               *   A7
  To bring them back, they know not how or when
           Dm          Bb              F   A7
  But this I know, that he was born of Mary
                Dm     Bb            C   *
  When Bethl'em's manger was his only home
            F        Bb            F       Dm
  And that he lived at Nazareth and laboured
           F                C                 F   *
  And so the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is come.

           F        F7           Bb      *
2 I cannot tell how silently he suffered
            F        Dm                   G   C
  As with his peace he graced this place of tears
           F      F7                  Bb    *
  Or how his heart upon the cross was broken
             F       *                *    A7
  The crown of pain to three and thirty years
           Dm       Bb              F      A7
  But this I know, he heals the brokenhearted
               Dm      Bb                C   *
  And stays our sin and calms our lurking fear
               F      Bb             F    Dm
  And lifts the burden from the heavy laden
               F                C               F   *
  For still the Saviour, Saviour of the world is here.

           F        F7               Bb     *
3 I cannot tell how he will win the nations
            F         Dm          G   C
  How he will claim his earthly heritage
           F      F7             Bb     *
  How satisfy the needs and aspirations
            F        *             *   A7
  Of east and west, of sinner and of sage
           Dm        Bb                  F  A7
  But this I know, all flesh shall see his glory
             Dm       Bb             C   *
  And he shall reap the harvest he has sown
              F       Bb                F    Dm
  And some glad day his sun will shine in splendour
```

             F                C                F    *
  When he the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is known.

          F        F7                  Bb     *
4 I cannot tell how all the lands shall worship
             F       Dm             G      C
  When at his bidding every storm is stilled
            F       F7            Bb    *
  Or who can say how great the jubilation
            F          *               *    A7
  When every heart with love and joy is filled
            Dm        Bb                      F  A7
  But this I know, the skies will thrill with rapture
            Dm     Bb           C   *
  And myriad myriad human voices sing
              F           Bb                     F Dm
  And earth to heav'n, and heav'n to earth, will answer
              F                C                F    *
  'At last the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is King!'
