     C            Am                Em          Am
1   I danced in the morning when the world was begun
          Dm           *            *           G
    And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun
          C               Am          Em            Am
    And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth
      Dm    G     F       C
    At Bethlehem I had my birth.

    C      Em        *            Am
    Dance, then, wherever you may be
    C       *          Dm         G
    I am the Lord of the dance, said he
           C        F       C              *
    And I'll lead you all, wherever you may be
           F        G       C            *
    And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

     C             Am            Em   Am
2   I danced for the scribe and the Pharisee
            Dm        *              *              G
    But they would not dance and they wouldn't follow me
     C             Am            Em        Am
    I danced for the fishermen, for James and John
         Dm        G          F          C
    They came with me and the dance went on:

    C      Em        *            Am
    Dance, then, wherever you may be
    C       *          Dm         G
    I am the Lord of the dance, said he
           C        F       C              *
    And I'll lead you all, wherever you may be
           F        G       C            *
    And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

     C             Am           Em        Am
3   I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame
        Dm  *          *      G
    The holy people said it was a shame
         C                Am               Em          Am
    They whipped and they stripped and they hung me on high
             Dm     G         F       C
    And they left me there on a cross to die:
