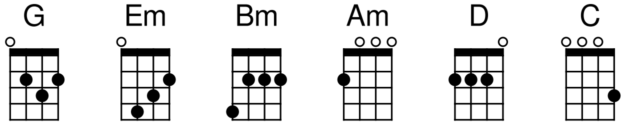
Key: G   Time: 4/4



```
     G             Em                Bm          Em
1   I danced in the morning when the world was begun
          Am            *            *           D
    And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun
          G                Em           Bm            Em
    And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth
       Am    D     C      G
    At Bethlehem I had my birth.

    G      Bm       *            Em
    Dance, then, wherever you may be
    G        *          Am         D
    I am the Lord of the dance, said he
            G        C        G               *
    And I'll lead you all, wherever you may be
            C        D        G            *
    And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

     G              Em             Bm   Em
2   I danced for the scribe and the Pharisee
             Am        *               *               D
    But they would not dance and they wouldn't follow me
     G              Em             Bm          Em
    I danced for the fishermen, for James and John
          Am         D           C           G
    They came with me and the dance went on:

    G      Bm       *            Em
    Dance, then, wherever you may be
    G        *          Am         D
    I am the Lord of the dance, said he
            G        C        G               *
    And I'll lead you all, wherever you may be
            C        D        G            *
    And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

     G             Em             Bm         Em
3   I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame
         Am  *           *       D
    The holy people said it was a shame
          G                  Em                Bm           Em
    They whipped and they stripped and they hung me on high
              Am     D          C       G
    And they left me there on a cross to die:

I'll live in you if you'll live in me

I am the Lord of the dance, said he.
