          F                  Bb                    Gm                  F
1 Come, let us join our friends above, who have obtained the prize
       F              Bb                 Gm              F
  And on the eagle wings of love to joys celestial rise
       C                  Bb                  Dm              C
  Let saints, on earth unite to sing with those to glory gone
       F                  Bb              Gm                    F
  For all the servants of our King in earth and heaven are one.

       F          Bb                  Gm                F
2 One family we dwell in Him, one church above, beneath
          F            Bb                   Gm                 F
  Though now divided by the stream, the narrow stream of death
       C            Bb               Dm              C
  One army of the living God, to His command we bow
        F                  Bb                          Gm                   F
  Part of His host have crossed the flood, and part are crossing now.

       F                  Bb                  Gm             F
3 Ten thousand to their endless home this solemn moment fly
       F              Bb                 Gm            F
  And we are to the margin come, and we expect to die
        C                 Bb                       Dm                   C
  E'en now by faith we join our hands, with those that went before
       F                   Bb                    Gm           F
  And greet the blood be sprinkled bands, on the eternal shore.

       F                  Bb                  Gm                  F
4 Our spirits too shall quickly join like theirs with glory crowned
       F                  Bb                  Gm                F
  And shout to see our Captain's sign, to hear his trumpet sound
     C                  Bb                  Dm                  C
  O that we now might grasp our Guide! O that the word were given
        F                  Bb                Gm              F
  Come Lord of Hosts the waves divide and land us all in heaven
