1 It came upon a midnight clear that glorious song of old
       F       Bb       F          *         Bb           C          F    *
  From angels bending near the earth to touch their harps of gold
        A7      *            Dm       *         C             G         C    *
  Peace on the earth, good will to men from heaven's all gracious King
     F          Bb      F          *        Bb        C       F    *
  The world in solemn stillness lay, to hear the angels sing

        F            Bb      F           *          Bb        G        C      *
2 Still through the cloven skies they come with peaceful wings unfurled
     F            Bb        F      *            Bb       C      F     *
  And still their heavenly music floats o'er all the weary world
   A7        *        Dm     *             C        G         C    *
  Above its sad and lowly plains, they bend on hovering wing
     F     Bb        F      *           Bb       C       F    *
  And ever o'er its Babel sounds the blessed angels sing.

    F      Bb            F          *           Bb         G        C   *
3 O ye, beneath life's crushing load whose forms are bending low
     F      Bb        F          *         Bb       C          F    *
  Who toil along the climbing way with painful steps and slow
      A7        *         Dm      *           C        G       C    *
  Look now! for glad and golden hours come swiftly on the wing
    F       Bb        F      *         Bb        C       F    *
  O rest beside the weary road and hear the angels sing

     F        Bb        F          *      Bb        G        C   *
4 For lo! The days are hastening on by prophets seen of old
       F         Bb    F          *           Bb        C          F    *
  When with the ever circling years shall come the time foretold
      A7           *      Dm       *          C        G          C    *
  When peace shall cover all the earth its ancient splendors fling
     F          Bb          F         *           Bb       C       F    *
  And the whole world send back the song which now the angels sing!
